WELCOME TO THE CLUB

Thanks for choosing Decathlon Club for your team's kit. As the world's largest sports goods provider, we're proud to be here for all of your team's needs - and that means helping you create your ideal kit.

Fully bespoke kit, for performance and play

At Decathlon Club, we've revolutionised teamwear by combining premium performance with unlimited personalisation. Our advanced fabric technology delivers exceptional moisture management, longevity, and comfort while our bespoke design service transforms your team's identity into distinctive kit that performs at the highest level. Whether you compete in mainstream sports or specialised disciplines, we create teamwear that gives you the competitive edge.

Your vision, our expertise

We understand that your team's identity is unique. That's why we've developed an industry-leading customisation process that puts you in control. Select from our unlimited colour palette, add your logos, integrate sponsors, and even develop comprehensive team concepts that extend across your entire kit collection. Our expert design team partners with you throughout the process, ensuring your vision is realised with precision and professional quality that makes an impact on and off the pitch.

Technical excellence in every thread

Our kit doesn't just look good. We've created a selection of garments for your team that all meet the highest standards, including:

- Superior moisture-wicking that rapidly moves sweat away from the skin for optimum breathability
- Reinforced construction at key stress points for exceptional durability
- Ergonomic designs that follow the natural movement patterns of athletes for maximum comfort
- Colour-fast sublimation that maintains vibrant appearance season after season

From grassroots clubs to high level competition, and from our standard options to our elite range, we deliver kit that performs as impressively as the athletes who wear it.

Your complete team solution

Beyond match kits, we provide comprehensive teamwear collections that maintain your professional identity across training, travel, and competition. Our coordinated ranges ensure your team projects a consistent, professional image throughout the season, reinforcing team unity and club identity at every level.

From design to delivery

Using our free online Kit Designer, it's never been easier to make your team's kit exactly how you want it. We offer more than simply your logo and colours. Our kit comes in unlimited palette, patterns and customisation - and our advanced visualisation software provides realistic mock-ups as you go - giving you unlimited revisions and full control over your design.

ORDER SPECIFICATION

Once you're happy with your design, our online form sends this directly to us to ensure the highest quality.

Complete your full team's order with sizes, names and numbers once the visual design is approved, all using our online form template.

PRECISION DESIGN

Choose your garment template in our online Kit Designer, then customise it with your team colours, logos, sponsors, and more.

Our online service is free and easy to use, but we also have specialists on-hand to help if you need.

PRODUCTION & DELIVERY

Skilled technicians produce your kit using our advanced sublimation technology. Every garment undergoes comprehensive quality checks before approval.

Receive your complete order less than 6* weeks after your design is validated and deposit paid.

Decathlon Club

Decathlon Club delivers premium teamwear that combines outstanding quality with unlimited customisation for teams of all sports and sizes.
